

The Weather

Rain, with mild temperature today, followed by colder tonight to-morrow fair and colder.

(For full weather report, see page 4.)

72D YEAR

VOLUME 12
NUMBER 340

Entered January 27, 1922, at the Post-Office at Richmond, Va., as Second-Class Matter.

RICHMOND, VA., WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1922.—TWELVE PAGES

"HAMMER" SLAYER OUTWITS OFFICERS, MAKES ESCAPE

Southern California Searched in Vain for Mrs.
Clara Phillips.

HUSBAND DECLARES
HE DID NOT AID FLIGHT
Convicted Murderer Makes Clear Getaway From Los Angeles Jail.

SEVERAL PERSONS HELPED.
Cell Bars Sawed Through, Prisoner Leaving by Way of Roof.

[By Associated Press.]
LOS ANGELES, Calif., Dec. 5.— Armour L. Phillips, whose wife, Clara Phillips, convicted murderer, escaped from the Los Angeles county jail last night, appeared at the office of her attorney today and sent word to the sheriff's office he was ready to be interviewed about the escape.

Phillips made a statement in which he said he knew nothing about the escape or where his wife had gone.
He gave a detailed account of his movements for the past twenty-four hours.

The escape was so well planned and executed that it remained unknown for more than six hours.

Dragnet Out for Woman.
The sheriff dispatched deputies to all parts along the western portion of the northern border of Mexico.
He also had all depots and the main roads out of Southern California guarded, telegraphed descriptions of the woman and her husband, and requested peace officers and personally led a search of those places to which it was believed the woman might have fled.

Investigation at the jail indicated that at least three persons had allied the woman. Footprints and other marks on the roof led the deputies to believe that Phillips' cell was used to announce their belief that at least two persons aided her on the roof and that one or two more were in an automobile at the street level.

Complained of Illness.
The matron on duty at the time of the escape was Mrs. L. D. Fisher, long a member of the jail staff. She said she visited Mrs. Phillips in her cell at about 9 o'clock last night, found her in bed and complaining of illness. Mrs. Fisher said she then returned to the matron's quarters, about twenty-five feet from the door of Mrs. Phillips' cell. She said she heard nothing unusual.

Mrs. Fisher said she knocked on the cell door at 6:30 this morning, and then awoke the women in the dormitory. Later the cells were unlocked and when Mrs. Fisher noticed that Mrs. Phillips' cell door was open, she asked other persons concerning her, and they said she was "around here some place." Still unable to locate her, the matron returned to her quarters, and when she saw a woman who occupied a cell adjoining that of Mrs. Phillips had escaped.

Cells in the women's wards have inside curtains. The curtain in Mrs.
Phillips' cell was down, and this delayed her escape. Mrs. Fisher said Clara Phillips was held under a sentence of ten years imprisonment after conviction of the hammer murder of Albert Meadows.

Mrs. Phillips' cell was a small room, about 10 by 12 feet, with a single window. From behind the glass panes, which were covered with curtains, she could see the street.
The window was broken, and the curtains were pulled down. Mrs.
Phillips was found on the roof of the jail, and she was seen to get into an automobile at the street level.

GOVERNOR'S BARN FIRED
SUSPECT INCENDIARISM
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] DUBLIN, Va., Dec. 5.—Fire, believed to have been of incendiary origin, tonight about 11:30 o'clock destroyed a large barn and granary belonging to Governor E. Lee Trinkle, W. S. Trinkle, son of Governor E. Lee Trinkle, estimated damage estimated at about $10,000.

The barn contained twenty-five tons of hay, fifteen tons of straw, and a large quantity of corn and other farming machinery. The property was located about a mile from Dublin.

County authorities have requested that bloodhounds be sent to the scene in an effort to ascertain whether firebugs caused the blaze.

"TEN OPPORTUNITIES" ARE PRESENTED FOR GENEROUS PUBLIC'S CONSIDERATION

The Times-Dispatch this morning presents the cases of ten Richmond families who are in destitute circumstances and must have the aid of a generous public. Every one of the "Ten Opportunities" has been investigated by the Associated Charities and found worthy of your help. Send any contribution you may desire to the particular opportunity in which you are interested, to the "Opportunities Fund," The Times-Dispatch, Richmond, Va., and it will be duly acknowledged through the columns of this newspaper. The opportunities are selected by the Associated Charities, follow:

OPPORTUNITY NO. 1.
The public is asked to contribute $200 for the maintenance of a little girl of 14. The court was obliged to place her in a ward of the State because of conditions in her home. She was not eligible to any orphanage, and, as she is a very talented child, we are anxious to give her a fair chance to make her own way in the world. Two hundred dollars will pay for the year of 1923 at Foster Falls. Contributions received yesterday, $250.

OPPORTUNITY NO. 2.
We asked for $600 for this same family last year and must ask for $300 this year. Both the father and mother are tubercular and are in a sanatorium at present.
The oldest child, who was reported as having come home from the sanatorium in the appeal last year, is now well and working regularly. The two other boys, ranking in age from 19 to 2, are being boarded by the Associated Charities at a splendid country home. They are going regularly to school and are very happy and getting fat and rosy.

OPPORTUNITY NO. 3.
About a year ago a mother came to us in great distress. She had recently married and the stepfather of her five children was unwilling to support them and ordered her to get rid of them at once. We found he was ill treating her and some action had to be taken. We have sent them away to a boys' school and are anxious to raise money enough to give them a chance to grow up together.

OPPORTUNITY NO. 4.
Two hundred dollars will support one of them at Covington during the year 1923. Contributions received yesterday, $200.

OPPORTUNITY NO. 5.
Through illness and poverty, this woman has been rendered practically dependent, and at present the Associated Charities is finding it necessary to pay her board. She formerly lived in the city of Richmond and has a home for which she has paid all but $250. This must be paid by January 1 in order to save the property to her. If we could pay off the notes on her property, we feel it would mean a great deal to her than anything that could be given her in cash.

OPPORTUNITY NO. 6.
Two hundred and fifty dollars, we believe, will restore this woman to health and nerves and enable her to care for her children.

OPPORTUNITY NO. 7.
A year ago the Associated Charities asked for $200 to send a little girl of 5 away to school. Her mother was an addict, who was unwilling to part with her child, and would not hear of her being placed in a private home or orphanage. She was willing, however, to let her child be educated. If we could finance the matter,

OPPORTUNITY NO. 8.
A mother, whose husband is in an insane asylum, is faced with the prospect of having to put her four children in an orphanage.
The oldest child is 11 years old, and the youngest is 2. Three hundred dollars is asked to help keep this family together. Contributions received yesterday, $350.

OPPORTUNITY NO. 9.
The mother of two little children, the oldest of whom is 10, and the youngest is 2, was left suddenly a widow. She is not physically strong enough to work more than a few hours a week, and she will work her fingers to the bone rather than give up her children. We are asking the public to contribute to care for this family.

OPPORTUNITY NO. 10.
A mother, whose husband is in an insane asylum, is faced with
the prospect of having to put her four children in an orphanage.
The oldest child is 11 years old, and the youngest is 2. Three hundred dollars is asked to
help keep this family together. Contributions received yesterday, $350.

OPPORTUNITY NO. 11.
A mother, whose husband is in an insane asylum, is faced with
the prospect of having to put her four children in an orphanage.
The oldest child is 11 years old, and the youngest is 2. Three hundred dollars is asked to
help keep this family together. Contributions received yesterday, $350.

OPPORTUNITY NO. 12.
A mother, whose husband is in an insane asylum, is faced with
the prospect of having to put her four children in an orphanage.
The oldest child is 11 years old, and the youngest is 2. Three hundred dollars is asked to
help keep this family together. Contributions received yesterday, $350.

OPPORTUNITY NO. 13.
A mother, whose husband is in an insane asylum, is faced with
the prospect of having to put her four children in an orphanage.
The oldest child is 11 years old, and the youngest is 2. Three hundred dollars is asked to
help keep this family together. Contributions received yesterday, $350.

OPPORTUNITY NO. 14.
A mother, whose husband is in an insane asylum, is faced with
the prospect of having to put her four children in an orphanage.
The oldest child is 11 years old, and the youngest is 2. Three hundred dollars is asked to
help keep this family together. Contributions received yesterday, $350.

OPPORTUNITY NO. 15.
A mother, whose husband is in an insane asylum, is faced with
the prospect of having to put her four children in an orphanage.
The oldest child is 11 years old, and the youngest is 2. Three hundred dollars is asked to
help keep this family together. Contributions received yesterday, $350.

IRISH FREE STATE TAKES ITS PLACE AS NEW DOMINION

Formalities Are Concluded Launching New Government of Erin.

TIMOTHY HEALY NOW
GOVERNOR-GENERAL

Dail Eireann, Meeting as Parliament, to Name Speaker Tonight.

ROYALTY TO VISIT COUNTRY.
King George and Queen Mary Plan Early Trip to Ireland's Capital.

[By Associated Press.]
DUBLIN, Dec. 5.—With the announcement from London that the royal assent had been given to the Irish constitution, which Timothy Healy had been appointed governor-general, all formalities have been concluded for the inauguration of the Irish Free State government. The Dail Eireann, meeting as Parliament tomorrow night to elect a speaker, will in the members and proceed with the election of a senator. Mr. Healy will be sworn in as governor-general tomorrow by lord chief justice.

General said tonight that his position was that of a representative of the imperial government, and he had to see, on the one hand, that the constitution was not violated, and on the other, that the treaty was adhered to.

"Tim Healy" to His Friends.
As he understood it, his position was similar to that of the governor-general of Canada, where consultations were held between the governor-general and the London cabinet, whereby a common state of mind was reached. In the Irish Free State, he would be the servant of the Irish government and would be advised by that government. Regarding himself, he said he was smilingly remarking that he would still be Tim Healy, at least to his friends.

Referring to the status of the Free State, Mr. Healy declared:
"We have been given a measure of freedom as large as that enjoyed by any of the States in the American Union. The only blot is the separation of the six counties from the rest of the country, but I hope that in a few years, by a spirit of mutual concession, the North and the South will come together in a reunification of the country."

"We ask the American public," he added, "to give the new Irish government their moral support, or at any rate, to give its enemies financial support."

Recalls American Tour.
He recalled that forty-one years ago he visited the United States in the Irish Free State. He said he sought Irish sympathy in the land struggle, and said the support they had received had much to do with planting the Irish tenantry as free holders of the soil.

The opponents of the Irish Free State, concluded Mr. Healy, had no policy, and the destruction of railroads and canals. Any American or Irish-American who sent money to Ireland to support the Free State should open his eyes to the nature of the campaign to which he was subscribing.

KING AND QUEEN WILL PAY VISIT TO DUBLIN
[By Universal Service.]
LONDON, Dec. 5.—For the first time in a quarter of a century, British royalty will officially visit Southern Ireland.

It is learned tonight from sources reputed to be in close touch with Buckingham Palace, that King George and Queen Mary will travel to Dublin and give royal approval to the new British Dominion, the Irish Free State.

Tonight the royal assent was given to the bill creating the Irish Free State when the royal commissioners met in the House of Lords and unanimously passed the legislation by which Ireland attained self-determination in the British Empire.

Are Sorely in Need.
These ten families are sorely in need. The future life of little children is at stake. The health and happiness of the whole family is in jeopardy. Some of these children may arise to heights of glory and of fame. All they need is the brotherly care of folks who are able to share their own happiness. These are the "Ten Opportunities" which are afforded to grasp. They say that opportunity comes but once, but that is not strictly true. Opportunity spreads itself all about us all the time. Those who wish to contribute to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the
time. Those who wish to contribute
to the happiness of these children
may arise to heights of glory and of
fame. All they need is the brotherly
care of folks who are able to share
their own happiness. These are
the "Ten Opportunities" which are
afforded to grasp. They say that op-
portunity comes but once, but that is
not strictly true. Opportunity
spreads itself all about us all the